Winter 2023-2024 Honor Roll

From December 1, 2023 through February 29, 2024, these Ohio stations reported everyday. Here are those stations who get a thumbs up for their dedication!

Not listed below, but thought you reported everyday? You can check your reports. There are multiple ways to do this. You can go into your account and click on list/edit my daily precipitation reports. This will show your reports everyday. You can also go into 'view data' at the top of the page and click on 'station precipitation summary report.' Input your station and the period of interest. The missing days will be shown with dash marks. If there are additional questions e-mail Ashley.Novak@noaa.gov.

Skywarn Storm Spotter Training

Are you interested in severe weather? SKYWARN® is a volunteer program with between 350,000 and 400,000 trained severe weather spotters. These volunteers help keep their local communities safe by providing timely and accurate reports of severe weather to the National Weather Service. Skywarn spotter classes are held this time of year and there are still some left if you would like to attend one. These are typically offered in person and some offices also provide a virtual option as well. To learn more about the Skywarn program please go to <https://www.weather.gov/SKYWARN>. If you would like to see the class options available to you go to weather.gov and click on your area. Classes are advertised on the top news headlines.

Virtual CoCoRaHS Training

Are you new to CoCoRaHS or have you been an observer for awhile and need a refresher? This March there will be three virtual training sessions if you would like to attend one and get more information on everything from where to put your gauge to how to measure precipitation. The virtual classes will be March 18th from Noon-1pm EDT, March 18th from 6-7pm EDT, and March 26th from 7-8pm EDT. All classes will provide the same materials. Registration for the three virtual classes are listed on the Ohio CoCoRaHS page here: <https://www.cocorahs.org/state.aspx?state=oh>
